

Home > Arts & Events > Art > The Work OfficePROFILEREADER REVIEWS

The Work Office

✓ Critics' Pick

112 West 44th Street, New York, NY 10036
nr Sixth Ave. See Map | Subway Directions
212 901 0659 → Send to Phone

- Reader Rating: Write a Review
- Type of Show: Gallery Exhibits, Special Events

View Slideshow >

Courtesy of The Work Office

Rate & Review

Schedule

7/24/09 6pm-8pm

Profile

Artists Katarina Jerinic and Naomi Miller created this faux-employment-agency as a riff on the Depression-era stimulus policy that employed artists to make art for the government. Participating "starving artists" complete a New York-related assignment within a week and get paid $23.50—authentic government wages circa 1935—at "Pay-Day Parties" every Friday. The last one of the series is July 24.

PRICE

Free

RESERVATIONS

No Recommendation

NEARBY SUBWAY STOPS

B, D, F, V at 42nd St.-Bryant Park;
1, 2, 3, 7, N, Q, R, S, W at Times
Sq.-42nd St.

OFFICIAL WEBSITE

" theworkoffice.com

Be the first person to write a review.

WRITE YOUR OWN REVIEW >